

CALIFORNIA RESOURCES CORPORATION
CARBON TERRAVULT COMMITTEE CHARTER

Approved by the Board of Directors on May 2, 2025

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of California Resources Corporation (the “Corporation”) has established the Carbon TerraVault Committee of the Board (the “Committee”) with authority, responsibility and specific duties as described in this Carbon TerraVault Committee Charter (this “Charter”).

I. Purpose

The purpose of this Committee is to provide direction to and oversight of the carbon management business (the “Carbon Management Business”) of Carbon TerraVault Holdings, LLC and its subsidiaries (collectively, “CTV”).

II. Membership

The Committee must consist of not less than three members of the Board. No member of the Committee may be an employee of the Corporation.

The members of the Committee and its Chairperson will be selected at least annually by the Board and will serve at the pleasure of the Board. Any vacancy on the Committee will be filled by, and any member of the Committee may be removed by, an affirmative vote of a majority of the Board. If a Chairperson is not designated by the Board or present at a meeting, the Committee may designate a Chairperson by majority vote of the Committee members then in office.

III. Authority and Responsibilities

The Committee is delegated all authority of the Board as may be required or advisable to fulfill the purposes of the Committee. Without limiting the generality of the preceding statements, the Committee has the authority, and is entrusted with the responsibility, to take the following actions:

A. Authority

The Committee has the authority to:

1. Conduct or authorize investigations into any matter within the scope of the responsibilities delegated to the Committee as it deems appropriate, including the authority to request any officer, employee or advisor of the Corporation to meet with the Committee or any advisors engaged by the Committee;
2. Retain and determine funding for independent legal counsel and other experts and advisors, including the sole authority to retain, approve the fees payable to, amend the engagement with, and terminate any investment bank or other financial advisors to assist the Committee in connection with any matters under its responsibilities. The Committee may also utilize the services of the Corporation's regular outside legal counsel or other advisors to the Corporation; and

3. Delegate to its Chairperson, any one of its members or any subcommittee it may form, the responsibility and authority for any particular matter, as it deems appropriate from time to time under the circumstances. The Corporation must provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of (a) compensation to any advisors employed by the Committee and (b) ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.

B. Responsibilities

The Committee has the following responsibilities:

1. Review and discuss with management:
  - a. the budgets and development plans relating to the Carbon Management Business;
  - b. strategies, tactics, plans, goals, objectives, targets and metrics relating to the Carbon Management Business and the CTV's performance with respect thereto;
  - c. CTV's policies, programs, disclosures, public reports, and communication relating to the Carbon Management Business to ensure (a) compliance with applicable laws and regulations, (b) consistency with the CTV's strategy, (c) promotion of safe operations, sustainability and conservation of natural resources, and (d) timing requirements are set and achieved;
  - d. significant risk assessments, issues, laws and regulations, legislation, conventions, and medical/scientific developments relating to the Carbon Management Business; and
  - e. significant litigation and current and emerging regulatory proceedings relating to the Carbon Management Business;
2. Report periodically to the Board of the Corporation with respect to its activities, findings and recommendations; and
3. Act in such other matters as the Board may direct.

IV. Procedures

- A. Meetings. The Committee will meet at the call of its Chairperson, two or more members of the Committee or the Chairperson of the Board. The Committee will meet as frequently as circumstances dictate. Meetings of the Committee may be in person, by conference call or by unanimous written consent, in accordance with the Corporation's Bylaws. Meetings of the Committee will be held at such time and place, and upon such notice, as its Chairperson may from time to time determine.

Meetings may, at the discretion of the Committee, include other directors, members of the Corporation's management, independent advisors and consultants or any other persons whose presence the Committee believes to be necessary or appropriate. Those in attendance may observe meetings of the Committee, but may not participate in any discussion or deliberation unless invited to do so by the Committee, and in any event are not entitled to vote. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee may also exclude from its meetings any persons it deems appropriate, including, but not limited to, any director that is not a member of the Committee.

- B. Quorum and Approval. A majority of the Committee's members will constitute a quorum. The Committee will act on the affirmative vote of a majority of members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present. The Committee may also act by unanimous written consent in lieu of a meeting.
- C. Rules. The Committee may determine additional rules and procedures, including designation of a Chairperson pro tempore in the absence of its Chairperson and designation of a secretary of the Committee at any meeting thereof.
- D. Reports. The Committee will maintain minutes of its meetings and make regular oral or written reports to the Board, directly or through its Chairperson, of its actions and any recommendations to the Board.
- E. Performance Review. Periodically, the Committee will review and evaluate its own performance and will submit itself to a review and evaluation by the Board.
- F. Reimbursement of Expenses. Subject to the Corporation's Corporate Governance Guidelines and other policies, Committee members, including the Chairperson, will be reimbursed by the Corporation for all reasonable expenses incurred in connection with their duties as Committee members or as Chairperson.
